

It is abhorrent to me that Sinclair Broadcasting would require their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. How is this allowed. How can the FCC allow such control vesting with one company that affects are democratic process